

Amplifying Storytelling Through Arts & Culture

July 26 — August 6, 2021

Join us this summer!

Teacher-leaders:

Edward Littlefield, Culture & Music
Shelley Toon Lindberg, Visual Arts
Abel Ryan, NW Coast Formline
Martha Gould-Lehe, Culture integration

Credits available:

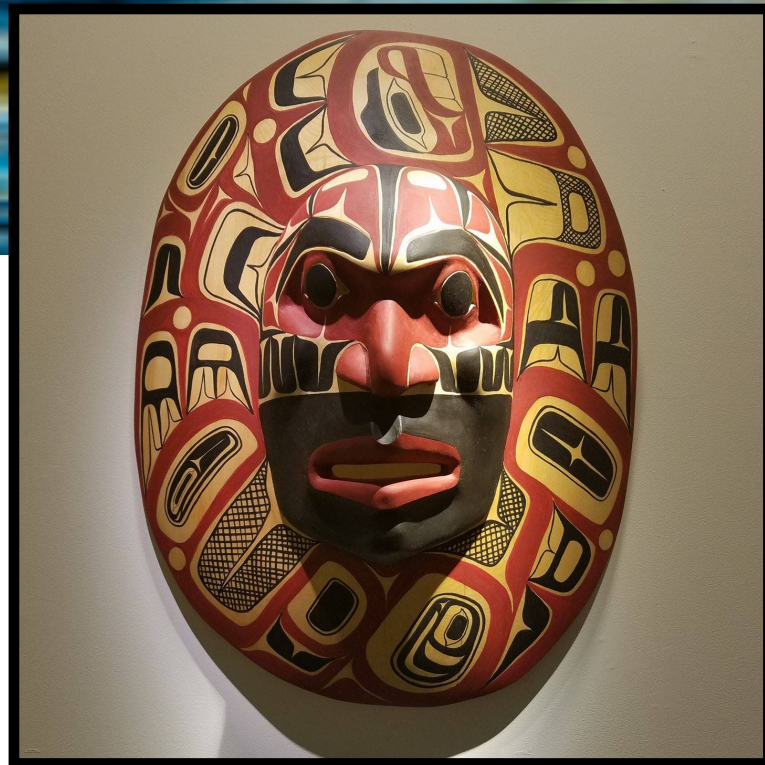

3 -500 level credits through UAS
This will be an on-line Institute

For more information:

Barbara Short, Executive Director
bshort@akartsed.org

Registration: www.akartsed.org

Member District—$350
Nonmember District—$450

Harvest Moon, Abel Ryan

Sealaska Scholarships:

Sealaska Heritage is offering 20 scholarships to Juneau, Ketchikan and Yakutat teachers.

In this 8-day Virtual Basic Arts institute, participants will be immersed in ways to integrate storytelling, visual arts, music, NW Coast cultural arts, and media arts, K-12 curriculum and instruction. Application of theory through hands-on practice will fill the days.

AAEC believes that teaching the arts with other subjects strengthens learning in all fields.

Sealaska Heritage supports cross-cultural connections to grow self-confidence in learning and teaching.

SEALASKA
HERITAGE