The AAEC Inaugural Institute is designed by Alaska Native Educators for Alaska Native Educators.

During this Institute, participants will strengthen their integration of the cultural arts into their practice. This is an opportunity for Indigenous educators to gather and learn from the collective with the goal of improving their practice to be more impactful on the teaching and learning through traditional ways.

Non-indigenous educators will be welcome to attend, as space is available.

Opportunity for 3 credits

Registration Fee:

$250 for AAEC Member Districts
$350 for Non-member Districts
